UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT , FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN , SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
(Plaintiff)

vs.
JOHN D. LASSITER
(Defendant)

Case No :13-20476
Hon. Mark A. Goldsmith

MOTION TO AUTHORIZE PAYMENT FROM
INMATE TRUST ACCOUNT

On June 3, 2020 , the Government filed a motion to seek payment from Defendants trust fund account in satisfaction of restitution owed .
The Defendant disagree's with taking his whole account and is willing to authorize payment of $1,000 dollars leaving Him with what's left to live off of . Yes the Defendant did get a lump sum payment but as You can see Defendant only kept a small portion for Himself to ease the Financial burden on His Family .
The majority was relinquished to help support his 2 children . The Defendant only makes $35.00 a month from His Prison job and with that He must manage Phone Calls , E-mails, and Personal Hygiene Items .
The Defendant is already in contract with the B.O.P. to pay restitution every 3 months which He's had no problems with .
The Defendant is willing to pay more a month if need be , but does not want to relinquish over all his monies , because he still has 5 more years to do .
If the Government comes up with a fair financial contract the Defendant is more than willing to sign it .
Until then The Defendant contest to the removal of any funds from his B.O.P. trust fund account except what He is already in contract with the B.O.P. For .

Respectfully ,

John D. Lassiter
